Financial Institutions and Commercial Law Section

Writing Competition

The Financial Institutions and Commercial Law Section is pleased to announce an award to be presented to the best published or publishable quality case note or comment written by a law student, or such a note or comment, or article or other published or publishable quality piece written by a lawyer admitted to practice for three years or less, on a topic dealing with commercial, consumer, or financial institutional law. The award includes a cash payment of $3,000.00, a Certificate of Recognition from the Section, and an all-expense paid presentation at a luncheon sponsored by the Section at the annual Commercial Law Update program in Oklahoma City in December. In addition and as necessary, publication of the winning piece will be sought by the Section. A Certificate of Recognition also will be awarded to the runner-up at the expense paid luncheon when the main award is presented and publication also will be sought for the paper.

Entries for the award must be published or written during the period November 1, 2008 to October 1, 2009 and submitted before November 1, 2009. Unpublished entries should be double-spaced, in law review format.

Four copies of your entry should be submitted to:
