I. GENERAL INFORMATION

This handbook is published by the Oklahoma Bar Association as an easy-to-read guide on Minor Guardianship laws in Oklahoma and the rights, duties, obligations required by the Guardianship statutes. The Minor Guardianship laws of Oklahoma are located in Title 30 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

This handbook includes a summary of the duties of Guardians, legal notices, timetables, required court approvals, a Guardian's accountability duties to the court and to the Ward, and sanctions/penalties for non-compliance.

The Courts and the judges (as well as their clerks and bailiffs) assigned to the guardianship dockets cannot act as your attorney. They cannot advise pro-se guardianship litigants how to proceed, what forms to use, how to present the case or what is necessary legally to obtain a guardianship over a minor. Knowing the court's limitations up front will help to avoid frustration and confusion if you are trying to handle a minor guardianship on your own, or pro-se. This Handbook will provide information that should be helpful in the event you want to represent yourself in the minor guardianship process.

Do You Need an Attorney?

Guardianship and conservatorship laws are tricky. Title 30 of the Oklahoma Statutes contains over one hundred statutes and thousands of clauses. It was written by legislators and has been interpreted and reinterpreted by courts for generations. Perhaps most important, your case will have a judge assigned to it. His or her interpretation of the interplay of statutes and appellate opinions will have tremendous control over your case.

Lawyers went to law school and have spent a good portion of their adult lives working to understand what the statutes and cases mean. They have taken the time to understand how each judge works and what they may expect.

If you break your arm, you might set the broken bone on your own. Your best chance for a good recovery though, is to go to the effort and expense of getting a doctor involved. Likewise, you might do your own Guardianship, but your best chance at a problem-free experience is to involve professionals from the beginning.

Lastly, if your case is contested or objected to by any person, or if the child or children are enrolled or eligible for enrollment in a Native American Indian tribe, it is highly recommended that you seek professional legal counsel.

III. TYPES OF GUARDIANSHIP OVER A MINOR

General Guardianship - A Guardian of the person or of all the property of the Ward within this state or of both person and property. (30 O.S. §1-109)

Limited Guardianship - A person authorized by the court to exercise limited powers over the person of the Ward, or over the property of the Ward within the state or of both person and property. (30 O.S. §1-109)

Emergency Guardianship - The Court has the inherent power to grant emergency guardianship over a child to protect the child from irreparable harm. (43 O.S. §110(B)(2), 43 O.S. §107.4 and 30 O.S. §2-101(B)(4))

Special Guardianship - A special guardianship is a type of guardianship for incapacitated adults and does not apply to minors. (30 O.S. §3-115) To obtain Special Guardianship, you must file a Petition for General Guardianship and an Application for Special Guardianship.

Guardianship by Power of Attorney - This is relatively new guardianship of limited duration with no court supervision. It is created by a very simple form, which can be found in the forms section of this Handbook. (10 O.S. §700)

IV. GUARDIANSHIP BY POWER OF ATTORNEY – A SUPER SIMPLE BUT LIMITED SOLUTION

Often, a child needs a short-term legal guardian for things like assurance of temporary safety, medical decision making, or school enrollment. In such circumstances, a regular guardianship may be overly complicated and more than needed. Oklahoma has a very simple solution for these problems, guardianship by power of attorney. (10 O.S. §700)

Using the proper form, a natural parent can designate custodial authority over a child to someone else for up to one (1) year. The person to whom custodial authority is designated is called the Attorney-in-Fact. A fill in the blank form is attached. This very simple form can address the vast majority of needs that lead people to think they want a guardianship.

From the parent's perspective, this is a quick and simple short-term solution that gives the Attorney-in-Fact authority to act on behalf of the child without diminishing the natural parent's legal and custodial authority. The Power of Attorney Guardianship expires automatically after one (1) year, but can be terminated by the natural parent at any time.

The Power of Attorney Guardianship removes the expense and hassle of court filings, hearings, and court monitoring required with a formal guardianship.

V. WHO MAY BE APPOINTED AS GUARDIAN

1. A person 18 years of age or older who is of sound mind and not acting under duress, menace, fraud, or undue influence may nominate their own Guardian over physical care and/or property. Such nomination must be in writing and signed by the person making the nomination. If two or more people are nominated, the person most recently nominated will be the Guardian. The court may also approve and appoint two people as co-Guardians, when appropriate. (30 O.S. §3-102)
2. The court may consider the people listed below when appointing a Guardian and does not have to choose in the order listed. The court has final say and chooses the Guardian based on what is in the Ward's best interests.
  - a. Custody or guardianship of a child may be awarded to:
    - i. A parent or to both parents jointly;
    - ii. A grandparent;
    - iii. A person who was indicated by the wishes of a deceased parent;
    - iv. A relative of either parent;
    - v. The person in whose home the child has been living in a wholesome and stable environment including but not limited to a foster parent; or
    - vi. Any other person deemed by the court to be suitable and able to provide adequate and proper care and guidance for the child.
3. A will or other written instrument may nominate a person to serve as guardian of a minor, to take effect upon the death of the parent so nominating:
  - i. if the child is born in wedlock, by either parent or both parents.
  - ii. If the child is born out of wedlock, by the mother of the child or by the natural father of the child, if said natural father has acknowledged paternity pursuant to Section 55 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes or has been judicially determined to be the father of the child at a paternity proceeding pursuant to Section 70 of Title 10 of the Oklahoma Statutes, or by both such mother and father. (30 O.S. §2-102 A).
4. Guardian's Fitness Inquiry (30 O.S. §4-105): In conducting an inquiry to determine whether a person is suitable to serve as a Guardian, the court shall inquire whether the person applying for Guardianship is:

- a. Over the age of 18;
  - b. Of sound mind (not incapacitated or partially incapacitated);
  - c. If the court is to appoint a person who has a criminal conviction, protective order, pending criminal charges, or other civil or criminal matter in state or federal court, after investigating such matters, the court shall only make such an appointment if the court has a reasonable belief that the person proposed to serve will be faithful to and not neglect the fiduciary and care responsibilities of the guardian, and that the appointment is in the best interest of the ward;
  - d. Whether an Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation (OSBI) criminal background check is needed (the person seeking Guardianship shall tell the court about any criminal history of himself/herself, or any other adult household member, so the court can consider whether the criminal history relates to the requested Guardianship);
  - e. Whether the person seeking Guardianship is insolvent or has declared bankruptcy in the five (5) years preceding the Guardianship petition;
  - f. Whether the person seeking Guardianship is under any financial obligation to the proposed Ward;
  - g. Whether there is any conflict of interest that would keep the person seeking Guardianship from properly caring for the Ward or the Ward's finances;
  - h. Whether the person seeking Guardianship is a citizen, a legal resident, or is otherwise legally present in the United States of America.
5. A nomination of a guardian for a minor made by a parent who has relinquished parental rights pursuant to an adoption proceeding or whose parental rights have been terminated by a district court shall have no effect. (30 O.S. §2-102 B)
  6. If a minor is under the age of fourteen (14) years, the Court may name and appoint his guardian. If the minor has attained the age of fourteen (14) years, the minor may nominate his own guardian, who, if approved by the court, must be appointed accordingly. (30 O.S. §2-103)
    - a. When a guardian has been appointed by the court for a minor under the age of fourteen (14) years, the minor, at any time after he has attained age fourteen (14), may nominate his own guardian, subject to the approval of the Court. (30 O.S. §2-104)
    - b. If a guardian nominated by a minor who has attained the age of fourteen (14) years is not approved by the Court, or if, after being notified by the court, the minor neglects for ten (10) days to nominate a suitable person, the Court may name and appoint a guardian in the same manner as if the minor was under the age of fourteen (14) years.
    - c. If the Court determines that the person nominated is unable, unwilling, or cannot qualify to so serve, the court must make a finding to that effect, and then the Court must appoint a guardian as if the nomination had not been made, taking into account any alternative guardian named in the nomination. (30 O.S. §3-105)

C. APPLICABILITY OF ICWA TO GUARDIANSHIPS OF MINORS:

Any person seeking guardianship of a child who is an “Indian child”, as defined by the Indian Child Welfare Act (“ICWA”), must give notice of the action to the tribe and to the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

ICWA defines an Indian child as any unmarried person who is under age eighteen and is either (a) a member of an Indian tribe or (b) is eligible for membership in an Indian tribe and is the biological child of a member of an Indian tribe.

ICWA mandates that an Indian Tribe has exclusive jurisdiction over any child custody proceeding involving an Indian child who resides in or is domiciled within a tribal reservation. Where an Indian child is a ward of a tribal court, the Indian tribe retains exclusive jurisdiction regardless of where the child resides.

A tribe has a right to remove any guardianship action involving an Indian child from state court to Tribal court, when the child is not residing in a reservation. The Tribal court has the right to decline to exercise jurisdiction once notified and may allow the District Court to proceed with the guardianship action.

Notice to the tribe and the parent or Indian custodian, shall be by registered mail with return receipt requested, of the pending proceedings and of their right of intervention. If the identity or location of the parent or Indian custodian and the tribe cannot be determined, such notice shall be given to the Secretary in like manner, who shall have fifteen days after receipt to provide the requisite notice to the parent or Indian custodian and the tribe.

In any case in which the court determines that a parent or Indian Custodian, shall have the right to court-appointed counsel in any removal, placement, or termination proceeding. The court may, in its discretion, appoint counsel for the child upon a finding that such appointment is in the best interest of the child. Where State law makes no provision for appointment of counsel in such proceedings, the court shall promptly notify the Secretary upon appointment of counsel, and the Secretary, upon certification of the presiding judge, shall pay reasonable fees and expenses out of funds.

ICWA does not prevent an emergency removal or placement of an Indian child who is not on a reservation in order to prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the child. The State authority, official, or agency involved shall insure that the emergency removal or placement terminates immediately when such removal or placement is no longer necessary to prevent imminent physical damage or harm to the child and shall expeditiously initiate a child custody proceeding subject to the provisions of this subchapter, transfer the child to the jurisdiction of the appropriate Indian tribe, or restore the child to the parent or Indian custodian, as may be appropriate.

D. NOTICES TO THE CHILD'S TRIBE(S) AND THE BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS ("BIA") SHOULD BE MADE AS FOLLOWS:

Notice MUST by certified mail (return receipt requested) to:

- The parents or to the Indian custodians of the minor, if any;
- Any tribe that is or may be the tribe of the Indian child; and
- The appropriate Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) area office.

The notice should include:

1. The name and tribal affiliation of the Indian child;
2. A copy of the petition by which the proceeding was initiated;
3. A statement of the rights of the biological parents or Indian custodians, and the Indian tribe:
  - a. to intervene in the proceeding,

- b. to petition the court to transfer the proceeding to the tribal court of the Indian child, and
  - c. to request an additional twenty (20) days from receipt of notice to prepare for the proceeding; further extensions of time may be granted with court approval;
4. A statement of the potential legal consequences of an adjudication on the future custodial rights of the parents or Indian custodians;
  5. A statement that if the parents or Indian custodians are unable to afford counsel, counsel will be appointed to represent them; and
  6. A statement that tribal officials should maintain confidentiality of the information contained in the notice.

NOTICE OF REVIEW HEARINGS:

- Notice of review hearings shall be sent, via regular first-class mail, to the tribe of the Indian child unless the tribe is present at the time the review hearing is set and consents to the date of the review.

Proper Notice shall be evidenced by filing a certificate of mailing into the Court record (with the Court Clerk) prior to the review hearing.
